The purchaser will be given an acknowledgement for depositing the instrument of payment. Money receipt will be issued only on clearance of demand draft/Bankers Cheque/Pay Order/Bank Deposit Challan from the Bank.
19. In the event of failure to pay the 75% revenue within the stipulated date, Security Deposit shall be forfeited to the Govt. of W.B. and the purchaser shall not have any claim to the purchased lot/lots. Such produce/lot(s) may be disposed off in the manner as deemed fit by W.B. Forest Development Corporation Limited/Directorate of Forest, Govt. of W.B.
20. The produce from the depot shall have to be extracted by the purchaser within 120(One hundred twenty) days counted from the last date of auction. For extraction of produce beyond the 120th day counted from the day after the last day of the auction, the purchaser shall have to pay depot rent @ Rs. 0.20 % per day up to 150 days from the last day of auction. However, for firewood , the purchaser can extract the firewood lots up to 180 days from the last day of auction after paying depot rent @ 0.20% per day.
21. The extraction of produce will not be allowed beyond 150 days in case of timber and 180 days in case of firewood. However, in cases where the purchaser has paid the full revenue within the stipulated time has not been able to extract the timber/firewood within the stipulated time, the Forest Dept., on the recommendation of the PCCF & HoFF may allow the extraction of Timber produce beyond 150 (One hundred fifty) days and firewood beyond 180 (One hundred eighty) days from Depots by realizing the Depot Rent at the rate of three times the Depot rent which is applicable between 120 (One hundred twenty) days and 150 (One hundred fifty) days for timber and 180 (One hundred eighty) days for firewood. For such extension the purchaser will give in writing his/her request to the DFO with verifiable and justifiable reasons for seeking the extension of time. The DFO will either reject or accept the request on merit. If accepted, the DFO will send the request with his/her recommendation stating the facts and reasons to the PCCF & HoFF for forwarding the same to the Forest Dept. For extension beyond 150 days for timber and 180 days for firewood, the depot rent should be deposited in advance. After the stipulated time including time for extension expires, the produce/lot(s) may be deposited of in the manner as deemed fit by W.B. Forest Development Corporation Limited / Directorate of Forests, Govt. of W.B. and the purchaser shall have no claim to any refund to the sale value of the same or in any part thereof as may have been paid by the purchaser under such circumstances.

The Forest Dept., shall however, reserve the right to dispose or not to dispose the produce or allow additional time for extension to extract the produce on the prescribed conditions.
22. In case of unavoidable circumstances and exigencies like natural calamity and political disturbance of extreme nature, special provision for extension of time limits may be made by the General Manager/Chief Conservator of Forests.
23. In the event of default in payment of Sale Value within the stipulated period and W.B. Forest Development Corporation Limited/Directorate of Forest, Govt. of W.B. incurring loss due to such default, the purchaser shall be liable to compensate the loss including interest @ 18% per annum on it. In the event of the purchaser not agreeing to pay such loss, West Bengal Forest Development Corporation Limited/ Directorate of Forest, Govt. of W.B. shall have the right to file suit for damages for recovering the value, including accrued interest thereon and other damages, if any, under Civil Law without serving any further notice for the same. The West Bengal Forest Development Corporation Limited/ Directorate of Forest, Govt. of W.B. reserves the right to suspend any such defaulter bidder/merchant from participating in ensuing auctions thereafter till disposal of the pending suit/suits.

24. No purchaser shall remove any timber before verification of payment of full Sale Value and other charges in respect of his/her lot/lots and unless the timber is sale-marked.
25. During the period of extraction of the produce, sold in the auction, the purchaser shall have to abide by the provisions of the Indian Forest Act 1927 and the West Bengal Forest Produce Transit Rules, 1959 and the amendments there-under. Failure to comply with the provisions of the said Act and the Rules shall make the purchaser liable to penal action as provided therein.
26. All operation related with the sold lot/lots must be done either by the lot purchaser himself/herself or under the guidance of the lot purchaser. However, only a formally authorize agent will be allowed to act on behalf of the purchaser in respect of the lot/lots purchased. The purchaser must issue a letter of authority, and submit it to the Divisional Manager/Divisional Forest Officer/Authorized Officer for approval. Such letter of authority must declare that the purchaser shall be held responsible for any irregularities committed by his authorized agent. The Divisional Manager/Divisional Forest Officer/Authorized Officer, however, reserve the right to allow or not to allow any of the agent/agents that the purchaser employs to act on behalf of the purchaser.
27. In the event of any damage done to the Roads, Telephone lines, Electrical lines or any other installation or property either belonging to the Govt. or to a private party in course of extraction of the lot(s), the lot purchaser concerned shall solely be liable to compensate for the losses.
28. The purchaser must register his property mark hammer with the West Bengal Forest Development Corporation Limited/Directorate of Forest, Govt. of West Bengal and submit a facsimile of the same to the Divisional Manager/Divisional Forest Officer/Authorized Officer. All timber removed from depot must contain the Govt. hammer mark & also the valid property hammer mark of the purchaser. The fee for registration of individual Property hammer and the renewal fee will be governed by orders as revised from time to time.
29. If the purchaser fails to observe any of the condition contained herein and/or in the agreement, it will be lawful for the Divisional Manager/Divisional Forest Officer/Authorized Officer to terminate the agreement after issuing a notice in writing to the purchaser, unless the agreement is terminated by effluxion of time, and forfeit the Security Deposit of the lot/lots and to recover from the purchaser such loss as may have accrued to West Bengal Forest Development Corporation Limited/Directorate of Forest, Govt. of W.B. for such termination of the agreement. In addition to forfeiture of the security deposit the purchaser shall be liable to be declared as a defaulter and in case of resale of the lot/lots in respect of which the purchaser has not paid full revenue, the purchaser shall be liable to compensate for the loss, under the law.
30. Any sum that may become due and payable to the purchaser and the amount deposited as Security or any part thereof may be appropriated by the W.B. Forest Development Corporation Ltd/Directorate of Forest, Govt. of W.B. or the Officer acting on their behalf, against any amount that may become payable by the purchaser to W.B. Forest Development corporation Ltd/Directorate of Forest, Govt. of W.B. under the provision of any other contract entered into by the purchaser with the Forest Dev. Corporation Ltd/Directoate of Forest, Govt. of W.B.
31. In case of any dispute on the decision of the Divisional Manager/Divisional Forest Officer/Authorized Officer, the decision of the General Manager(HQ)/Chief Conservator of Forests concerned shall be final and biding upon the purchaser.
