

Poles and Cogging sleepers for Industrial Use

The West Bengal Forest Development Corporation Limited (WBFDC) came into existence in 1974 as per Companies Act 1956, on the recommendation of National Commission of Agriculture. Thereafter, inception of Indian Forest Conservation Act and Hon. Supreme Court's Judgement with regard to T.N. Godavarman vs. Union of India & Othrs. in 1996 and subsequent judgements, the State Forest Corporations have been entrusted upon the responsibility of complete Timber Harvesting in the State as per Central Governments approved Working Plans.

The WBFDC conducts felling operation all over west Bengal and harvest timber, pole, cogging sleeper and fire wood. The wooden produce harvested is sold through the e-auction. Based on demand from mining and other user companies poles and cogging sleeper sized wood is harvested and supplied from the forests of South Bengal. WBFDC is meeting the requirements of poles and cogging sleeper to the purchasing companies at good rate and within mentioned time. Following are some of the bulk purchasers of poles and cogging sleepers.

1. Bharat Cooking Coal Ltd.
2. Eastern Coalfield Ltd.
3. Mahanadi Coalfield Ltd.
4. Central Coalfield Ltd.
5. Tata Steel
6. Steel Authority of India Ltd.

For enquiries contact

Divisional Manager

Bankura Forest Corporation Division

Machantola

Bankura (Post & PS) – 722101.

E-mail: bfgd@wbfdcl.com

